Sheridan, WY—June 20, 2017—The Powder Horn Golf Club has been named “Facility Newcomer of the Year” for outstanding performance in 2016 by Troon, the world’s largest golf management company.

The Powder Horn was chosen from among six finalists in Troon’s 250+ course portfolio, including golf properties in Arizona, Colorado, California, Alabama, and Queensland, Australia. General Manager Robert Kearney accepted the award last month at the 2017 Troon Leadership Conference at The Phoenician Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona.

“This award speaks to the dedication and hard work of the entire staff at The Powder Horn,” Kearney says. “We are proud to represent Troon’s commitment to creating extraordinary guest and member experiences through personalized service, consistency, and uncompromising attention to detail.” The team received an engraved silver and crystal award, which is on display in The Powder Horn Clubhouse.

About The Powder Horn

The Powder Horn Golf Community has been named one of America’s top golf communities by Travel + Leisure Golf and a top golf course by publications like Links, Golf Digest and Golfweek. At the base of the Big Horn Mountains just six miles outside of Sheridan, the 900-acre development features a 30,000-square-foot clubhouse including the Powder Horn Grill restaurant and Cowboy Bar, 27 holes of golf on three distinct courses, fly fishing on-site at Little Goose Creek, a swimming pool, fitness center and tennis courts; the property is also designated a National Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary. Real estate offerings include homesites, custom homes, low-maintenance patio homes, and cottages. The Powder Horn Golf Club is proudly managed by Troon Privé, the world’s leader in private club management.
